Aims of The Mutton Renaissance Club

- To re-establish mutton as an important niche market meat to ensure better prospects for the sheep industry
- To enable members to share information, ideas and expertise, to address the challenges facing this emerging market and to work together to develop it
- To represent the interests of farmers, processors, butchers and chefs involved in the mutton supply chain
- To uphold the specification for Renaissance Mutton
- To act as a supply chain list for buyers from across the UK and beyond
- To meet at least twice a year for training-based site visits and to create opportunities for face-to face meetings and dialogue
